Maak kennis met onze eerste expeditie ooit tot diep in Antarctica

Zodiac® Cruising along a Glacier

Je voegt je niet alleen toe aan de gelederen van de (zeer) bereisde mensen door tijdens deze reis de Drake Passage (tweemaal!) over te steken, maar je zet ook voet op het raadselachtige Antarctische schiereiland. - Ongekende breedtegraden bereikt. We gaan voorbij de Zuidpoolcirkel om 69°ZB te bereiken
- Verbeterde expeditie-ervaring. Hoogste expert-tot-gast ratio en zodiac-tot-gast ratio (1:10) in de regio
